1. Award Conditions - 2010 Alaska Rural Health Conference

Award Conditions to the Financial Assistance Award
Between the Denali Commission and Alaska Center for Rural Health
For 2010 Alaska Rural Health Conference (ARHC)
Award No. 01239
August 2009

1. Scope of Work

The Denali Commission (Commission) is providing a total of $5,000 to the Alaska Center for Rural Health (ACRH) for the sponsorship of the 2010 Alaska Rural Health Conference to be held April 28 - 30 2010 in Anchorage, Alaska.

ACRH is a non-profit corporation with a mission to strengthen rural health systems.

This year's conference provides the Commission with an opportunity to meet with rural health providers, social service agencies, rural tribal leadership, Alaska DHSS personnel, and private and public funding agency staff to focus on current issues surrounding the delivery of healthcare in rural and frontier Alaska. Approximately 250 attendees are expected at this event which has a total budget of approximately $120,000.

Denali Commission funds will be used for conference facility costs and sponsor of the travel for nationally recognized authorities on rural health to Alaska.

As a sponsor, the Denali Commission's name will be recognized throughout the conference and on conference related materials. As specified, sponsors of specific events will be identified in connection with that event with verbal recognition, in the conference program and advertisements, and listed in ACRH publications and receive a conference attendance roster after the meeting. The Denali Commission will also receive two free registrations to the conference and free booth space at the conference.

Commission funds for sponsorship can be used for: event space and equipment rentals for the actual event, event costs including video, audio and sound system rentals/services, travel of conference attendees (travel does not include food costs), event brochure printing or other event media needed for attendees. All activities that involve the work of consultants or contractors must be procured through fair and open procurement processes, in keeping with the Federal Circulars in order to be eligible Commission costs.

Commission funds cannot be used for food or beverage of any kind, gifts, per diem of attendees or wages/salaries. Any questions regarding acceptable uses of funds should be directed to the program manager.

All Commission funding is intended for use for the scope of work identified in the Award document only. Any balance of funds remaining after the full scope of work has been completed will be returned to the Denali Commission.
